Of 1,500 organized brass workers in this city, 750

are out of work. Nearly all these men were employed at good wages before the accession to power of the party that is pledged to destroy American industries.

RIVAL LIONS.

Atlanta Journal.—The Kentucky Majah has a competitor in Washington now in the person of an Indian Rajah.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS.

Boston Globe.—Clamshells were good enough money for America until Columbus came exploring o'er the sea.

CHANGE OF DIALECT.

Chicago Herald.—An Arab had his teeth knocked out by a Chicago policeman. He now talks gum Arabic.

MAN THE PUMPS.

Philadelphia Times.—True to his nature, as the old ship of state shivers along, the Prohibitionist is yelling: "All hands to the pumps."

KAPURTHALA-DE-AY.

Gateson Daily News.—If somebody will set the name of the Maharajah of Kapurthala to music possibly Lottie Collins will buy it.

JOHN L. FOR LAW AND ORDER.

Washington Post.—John L. Sullivan will hereafter vigorously advocate the enforcement of the law providing against concealed weapons.

OF COURSE.

Cleveland Leader.—The parts of the President's message which are least Democratic have been most generally approved, naturally enough.

TOO MUCH FOR TERPSICHORE.

Chicago Record.—If Terpsichore could see some of the dances in progress on Midway Plaisance she would undoubtedly resign from her calling.

CRESCENDO.

Memphis Ledger.—A big thunder storm held a Populist audience spell-bound at Sylvan Beach for several hours. Mrs. Mary Lease followed the storm.

THIS WOULD RESTORE GOOD TIMES.

Chicago Inter Ocean.—What Congress should do?

Repeat at once the purchase clause of the so-called Sherman Act.

Pledge the Government to maintain on an equality with gold our entire stock of money, viz: Gold, silver, silver certificates, greenbacks, and every obligation of the Government.

Authorize and direct the Secretary of the Treasury to sell gold bonds when necessary to protect this pledge.

Permit and require National banks to issue notes to the full par value of the bonds deposited by them to secure circulation.

PATRIOTISM ABOVE PARTISANSHIP.

Burlington (N. Y.) Free Press.—Republicans in Congress stand strongly in favor of sound financial measures regardless of party policy. The letter written by Governor McKinley of Ohio to the New York Press contains a magnificent example of this Republican consistency. He says:

It should be the aim of every one to help bring the country back to the prosperity it so recently lost. Politics should not be permitted to deter us from performing a plain duty. The policies which interfere with the return of good times and the well being of the country should be reformed. No pride of opinion, no theory, no party obligations should stand in the way. Our country first, is the true American sentiment.

This is a glorious example of political charity, and it is gratifying to note that Republicans in both branches of Congress are responding nobly.

CHEAP GIRLS.

New York Press.—In bemoaning the alleged "lack of dignity" in young unmarried women, a current writer declares that "the sense of their own worth should be impressed upon girls in all ranks of life. They are too cheap," adds this feminine pessimist. "They are made cheap and they allow themselves to become cheap. They ought to remember that they are queens born," etc.

In the language of Governor McKinley, we "hate that word cheapness," especially in relation to girls. Girls cheap! The "bear!" This gloomy writer is on the wrong side of the market. He evidently bought low. Girls are not cheap. They are as dear as ever. It is the one class of domestic securities that is none the worse for the present one. The correspondent in question has clearly been studying value from the free coinage of the Chicago platform.

AN IMMENSE CROWD

IN ATTENDANCE AT THE FAIR YESTERDAY.

J. H. L. Lovers His Record to 2:08 1/4, the Best Racing Ever Made on a Kentucky Track—List of Floral Hall Premiums.

What a crowd! What a racing! The attendance at the fair yesterday was as large as ever on the grounds in the history of the fair. The immense amphitheater was jammed full and hundreds of people wandered about the grounds. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the day was the dust, which was very disagreeable.

The following awards were made in the arena: Harness mare, four years old and over, J. W. Pender, Cynthia. Harness mare, three years old and under four, C. T. Donnell, Carlisle. Harness mare, two years old and under three, W. M. and A. G. Jones, North Middleton. Harness mare, one year old and under two, G. W. Horn, Mt. Olivet. Roadster stallion, four years old and under three, Fletcher Cheatham, Carlisle. Roadster stallion, three years old and under four, H. S. Schultz, Lexington. Fleming, Flemingsburg. Saddle gelding, two years old and under three, W. M. and A. G. Jones, North Middleton. Road horse, Fletcher Cheatham, Carlisle.

The first race in the afternoon was the 2:19 trot, in which there were ten starters. Bill Lindsay and Token were the favorites. The finishes were close and exciting. Summary: Happy Promise, 2:12 1/2. Token, 2:13 1/2. Seaside, 2:15 1/2. Pat My Boy, 2:16 1/2. Bill Lindsay, 2:17 1/2. Princewood, 2:18 1/2. Turner Boy, 2:19 1/2. White Cochins, 2:20 1/2. Sternberg, 2:21 1/2. The next was the Central Hotel stake of $1,000. In this there were six horses and some fine sport was afforded. Summary: Tolu, 1:33 1/2. Van Robins, 1:34 1/2. Dandy Sprague, 1:35 1/2. Vanity, 1:36 1/2. Frank L., 1:37 1/2. Doatmar, 1:38 1/2. Time—1:33 1/2, 1:34 1/2, 1:35 1/2, 1:36 1/2, 1:37 1/2, 1:38 1/2.

The free-for-all race was the most exciting of the day. Four horses were entered, Strong Boy, Orphan Boy, J. H. L. and St. Patrick. J. H. L. being the favorite and winning in two straight heats. He had before yesterday's race a record of 2:12, but he lowered his record in this race to 2:08 1/4, being the fastest time ever made by a pacer on a Kentucky track. Strong Boy did not only surprise his backers but the entire sporting element when he was distanced in the first heat. The summary:

Strong Boy, 2:08 1/4. Orphan Boy, 2:09 1/4. J. H. L., 2:10 1/4. St. Patrick, 2:11 1/4. Time—2:08 1/4, 2:09 1/4, 2:10 1/4, 2:11 1/4.

The boys' bicycle race was won by Andrew Rogers. The free-for-all bicycle race was easily won by Millard Williams of this city, D. S. Anderson of Fayetteville, O., J. D. Fee of Georgetown, O., and Robert Bisset of this city were the other contestants.

Today will occur the 2:23 trot, the free-for-all trot and the Smith stake of $1,000 for foals of 1890.

THE CHAMPION LIE.

Gigantic Oak Uprooted and Crushed by an Unknown Power.

A special from Paris indicates that Joe Mulhatten has a worthy successor in that city. It says that Monday afternoon while several carpenters were engaged in building a tobacco barn on D. McKee's place, an immense oak tree, fifteen feet in circumference and fifty feet tall, was seen to suddenly leap from the ground and fall five yards away a broken and crumbled mass.

Not one of the large limbs remained unbroken, and even the immense trunk was reduced to fragments.

The roots severed not over four inches under the ground, and in breaking gave forth a series of sharp reports closely resembling the rattle of musketry.

No cause can be assigned for the swift and complete annihilation of this forest monarch.

There was scarcely a breeze blowing, and the sky was without a cloud.

But two hours before the carpenters had partaken of their dinners beneath its branches and talked of its grandeur and of the innumerable storms it had withstood.

The field hands were colored men, and were filled with superstitious awe and fear.
